

A Summary of the Beliefs
of the Presbyterian Church in America

We believe the Bible is the written word of God, inspired by the Holy Spirit and without error in the original manuscripts. The Bible is the revelation of God's truth and is infallible and authoritative in all matters of faith and practice.

We believe in the Holy Trinity. There is one God, who exists eternally in three persons: the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

We believe that all are sinners and totally unable to save themselves from God's displeasure, except by His mercy.

We believe that salvation is by God alone as He sovereignly chooses those He will save. We believe His choice is based on His grace, not on any human individual merit, or foreseen faith.

We believe that Jesus Christ is the eternal Son of God, who through His perfect life and sacrificial death atoned for the sins of all who will trust in Him, alone, for salvation.

We believe that God is gracious and faithful to His people not simply as individuals but as families in successive generations according to His Covenant promises.

We believe that the Holy Spirit indwells God's people and gives them the strength and wisdom to trust Christ and follow Him.

We believe that Jesus will return, bodily and visibly, to judge all mankind and to receive His people to Himself.

We believe that all aspects of our lives are to be lived to the glory of God under the Lordship of Jesus Christ.

Our Father, who art in heaven;

Come, Thou Fount

Come, Thou fount of every blessing,
Tune my heart to sing Thy grace;
Streams of mercy, never ceasing,
Call for songs of loudest praise.
Teach me some melodious sonnet,
Sung by flaming tongues above;
Praise His Name—I'm fixed upon it,
Name of God's unchanging love.

Hitherto Thy love has blest me;
Thou has bro't me to this place;
And I know Thy hand will bring me
Safely home by Thy good grace.
Jesus sought me when a stranger,
Wand'ring from the fold of God:
He, to rescue me from danger,
Bought me with His precious blood.

O to grace how great a debtor
Daily I'm constrained to be;
Let Thy goodness, like a fetter,
Bind my wand'ring heart to Thee.
Prone to wander—Lord, I feel it—
Prone to leave the God I love:
Here's my heart, O take and seal it,
Seal it for Thy courts above.

Words by Robert Robinson.
Tune: NETTLETON 8.7.8.7.D. by Asahel Nettleton.

O How He Loves You and Me

O how He loves you and me.
O how He loves you and me.
He gave His life; what more could He give?
O how He loves you;
O how He loves me;
O how He loves you and me.

Jesus to Calv'ry did go;
His love for sinners to show.
What He did there brought hope from despair.
O how He loves you;
O how He loves me;
O how He loves you and me.

Pass Me Not

Pass me not, O gentle Savior;
Hear my humble cry;
While on others Thou art calling,
Do not pass me by.

Let me at the throne of mercy
Find a sweet relief;
Kneeling there in deep contrition,
Help my unbelief.

*Savior, Savior,
Hear my humble cry;
While on others Thou art calling,
Do not pass me by.*

Trusting only in Thy merit,
Would I seek Thy face.
Heal my wounded, broken, spirit;
Save me by Thy grace.

Thou, the Spring of all my comfort,
More than life to me,
Whom have I on earth beside Thee?
Whom in heav'n but Thee?

Words by Fanny J. Crosby. Music by William H. Doane.

The Westminster Confession of Faith on Christian Worship

The reading of the Scriptures with godly fear, the sound preaching and conscionable hearing of the Word, in obedience unto God, with understanding, faith, and reverence, singing of psalms with grace in the heart; as also, the due administration and worthy receiving of the sacraments instituted by Christ, are all parts of the ordinary religious worship of God: beside religious oaths, vows, solemn fastings, and thanksgivings upon special occasions, which are, in their several times and seasons, to be used in an holy and religious manner. (XXI. § 5)

Neither prayer, nor any other part of religious worship, is now, under the gospel, either tied unto, or made more acceptable by any place in which it is performed, or towards which it is directed: but God is to be worshiped everywhere, in spirit and truth; as, in private families daily, and in secret, each one by himself; so, more solemnly in the public assemblies, which are not carelessly or willfully to be neglected, or forsaken, when God, by His Word or providence, calleth thereunto. (XXI. § 6)

Psalm 91

- 1 Who with God Most High finds shelter
In th'Almighty's shadow hides.
- 2 To the LORD I'll say, "My Refuge!"
In my God my trust abides.
- 3 From the fowler's snare He'll save you,
From the deadly pestilence;
- 4 Cover you with outspread pinions,
Make His wings your confidence.

- God's own truth; your shield and buckler;
- 5 You will fear no ill by night,
Nor the shafts in daylight flying,
 - 6 Nor disease that shuns the light,
Nor the plague that wastes at noontday.
 - 7 At your side ten thousand fall;
 - 8 You will only see this judgment
Which rewards the wicked all.

- 9 You have made the LORD your refuge,
God Most High your dwelling-place;
- 10 Nothing evil shall befall you;
In your tent no scourge you'll face.
- 11 He will angels charge to keep you,
Guard you well in all your ways.
- 12 In their hands they will uphold you
Lest your foot a stone should graze.

- 13 You shall trample serpents, lions,
Tread on all your deadly foes.
- 14 For his love to Me I'll save him,
Keep him, for My name he knows;
- 15 When he calls Me I will answer,
Save and honor him will I.
- 16 I will show him My salvation,
With long life will satisfy.
